Speakers:

Doug Rikard-Bell

Host and Special Guest: Inspired Developer and Creative Entrepreneur Doug Rikard-Bell, talks to us about the Rhubarb Lane development in the newly designated Victoria Quarter, Auckland Central.

Rhubarb Lane is the most significant and surprising development of inner city Auckland since redevelopment of the Viaduct Harbour in the 1990's; but Rhubarb Lane is just so much more.

We explore how this creative approach to physical development of inner city urban space encourages community, influences development planning and creates opportunity for creative thinking, enterprise and lifestyle.

Anna Cameron

Director of Semi-Permanent, in a live interview following the delivery of the 2010 Semi-Permanent conference in Auckland.

We explore with Anna the networking and community building effects of Semi-Permanent among designer and artists.

There will opportunity for questions and answers from the floor and feedback on the 2010 Semi Permanent event from those of you who attended.
